Complaint either has evidentiary support or is likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original jurisdiction over the federal claims alleged herein pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) which states: "An action to recover the liability prescribed in the preceding sentences may be maintained against any employer (including a public agency) in any Federal or State court of competent jurisdiction by any one or more employees for and in behalf of himself or themselves and other employees similarly situated." Plaintiff's signed consent to sue is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

2. This Court has original jurisdiction over the state law claims alleged herein because the amount in controversy exceeds $15,000 and a party seeking to recover unpaid wages has a private right of action pursuant to the Nevada Revised Statute ("NRS") Chapter 608. See Neville v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for County of Clark, 406 P.3d 499, 502 (Nev. 2017).

3. Plaintiff also claims a private cause of action to foreclose a lien against the property owner for wages due pursuant to NRS 608.050.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because one or more of the Defendants named herein maintains a principal place of business or otherwise is found in this judicial district and many of the acts complained of herein occurred in Washoe County, Nevada, which is located within this district.

PARTIES

20 5. Plaintiff ALBERT VILLANUEVA ("Plaintiff" or "Villanueva") is a natural 21 person who was employed by Defendant from on or about October 21, 2021, to on or about 22 January 16, 2024.

6. Defendant FIGURE LENDING LLC ("Defendant" or "Figure") is a foreign limited liability company with its principal place of business at 650 California Street, Suite 2700, San Francisco, CA, 94108, with a registered agent in the state of Nevada located at 112 North Curry Street, Carson City, NV 89703.

7. The identity of DOES 1-50 is unknown at this time, and this Complaint will be amended at such time when the identities are known to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the Defendants sued herein as DOE is responsible in some manner for the 1 acts, omissions, or representations alleged herein and any reference to "Defendant," 2 "Defendants," or "Figure" herein shall mean "Defendants and each of them." 3

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. Defendant is a financial lending company that operates call centers throughout the United States.

9. 7 Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt hourly paid Customer 8 Service Agent (CSA).

9 10. At the time of his termination from employment, Plaintiff was earning an hourly rate of pay of $24.76 for each non-overtime hour he worked and a base overtime rate of $37.14 10 for each overtime hour that he worked.

11. In addition to his base hourly rate of pay, Plaintiff, and all other similarly situated 12 individuals, also regularly received non-discretionary bonuses ("Bonus") from Defendant. For 13 example, for the pay period of October 9, 2023 to October 24, 2023, Plaintiff received a non-14 discretionary bonus in the amount of $1,931.00. (Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct 15 copy of Plaintiff's bonus statement for that pay period ("October 2023 Bonus Statement").) 16 During that same pay period, Plaintiff worked a total of 53.50 overtime hours. (Attached hereto 17 as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's itemized wage statement for that same pay 18 19 period ("October 2023 Wage Statement").) As demonstrated by the October 2023 Wage Statement, Plaintiff was only paid overtime at a rate of one and one half (1 1/2) times his base 20 hourly wage rate¹; his overtime rate did not include the bonus that he earned for that pay period. 21 22 12. Upon information and belief, Defendant did not include the Bonus into the regular rate of pay for overtime payment calculations for Plaintiff or any other member of the putative 23 class members identified below. 24

¹ Plaintiff's base hourly rate of pay was \$24.76. One and one-half $(1 \frac{1}{2})$ times this amount nets a rate of \$37.14.

En	18	C. Common questions exist as to whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff

	20 21	D. Upon information and belief, Defendant employs, and has employed, in

	22	E. Plaintiff has signed and filed a consent to sue form contemporaneously a non-discretionary bonus at any time within 3-years from the filing of this complaint.

Continuation Wage Subclass: All Nevada Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendant.

18. Class treatment is appropriate in this case for the following reasons:

A. The Class is Sufficiently Numerous: Upon information and belief, Defendant employs, and has employed, in excess of 100 Class Members within the applicable statute of limitations. Because Defendant is legally obligated to keep accurate payroll records, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's records will establish the members of the Class as well as their numerosity.

B. Common Questions of Law and Fact Exist: Common questions of law and fact exist and predominate as to Plaintiff and Class Members, including, without limitation: (1) Whether Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and all members of the Class at the correct overtime rate by failing to include the Bonus into the regular rate; and (2) Whether Defendant failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing at the time of termination.

C. Plaintiff's Claims are Typical to Those of Fellow Class Members: Plaintiff was not paid overtime on the Bonus that was paid to him and to members of the Class. Plaintiff's claims are typical to those of the class that he seeks to represent. As a result, Defendant has not timely remitted all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and Class Members who are former employees upon their termination.

D. Plaintiff is an Adequate Representative of the Class: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the interests of Class Members because Plaintiff is a member of the Class, he has common issues of law and fact with all members of the Class, and his claims are typical to other Class Members.

E. A Class Action is Superior/Common Claims Predominate: A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since individual joinder of all members of the Class is impractical. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without unnecessary duplication of effort and expense. Furthermore, the expenses and burden of individualized litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual members of the Class to redress the wrongs done to them, while an important public interest will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and all members of the FLSA Class Against Defendant)

19. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all the paragraphs above in the Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

20. 29 U.S.C. Section 207(a)(1) provides as follows: "Except as otherwise provided in the section, no employer shall employ any of his employees who in any workweek is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, or is employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, for a workweek longer than forty hours unless such employee receives compensation for his employment in excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed."

18 21. By failing to include the non-discretionary Bonus into the regular rate of pay for 19 Plaintiff and member of the FLSA Class, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and FLSA Class
20 Members overtime for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a week in violation of 29
21 U.S.C. Section 207(a)(1).

22 22. Wherefore, Plaintiff demands for himself and for all others similarly situated, that 23 Defendant pay Plaintiff and FLSA Class Members one and one-half (1 ¹/₂) times their regular 24 hourly rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours a week during the relevant 25 time period together with liquidated damages, attorneys' fees, costs, and interest as provided by 26 law.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due and Owing Under Nevada Law (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Continuation Wage Subclass Against Defendant) 29. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by this reference all the paragraphs above in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein. 30. NRS 608.140 provides that an employee has a private right of action for unpaid wages. 31. NRS 608.020 provides that "[w]henever an employer discharges an employee, the wages and compensation earned and unpaid at the time of such discharge shall become due and payable immediately."

32. NRS 608.040(1)(a-b), in relevant part, imposes a penalty on an employer who fails to pay a discharged or quitting employee: "Within 3 days after the wages or compensation of a discharged employee becomes due; or ... [o]n the day the wages or compensation is due to an employee who resigns or quits, the wages or compensation of the employee continues at the same rate from the day the employee resigned, quit or was discharged until paid for 30 days, whichever is less."

33. NRS 608.050 grants an "employee lien" to each discharged or laid-off employee 17 for the purpose of collecting the wages or compensation owed to them "in the sum agreed upon 18 19 in the contract of employment for each day the employer is in default, until the employee is paid in full, without rendering any service therefor; but the employee shall cease to draw such wages 20 or salary 30 days after such default." 21

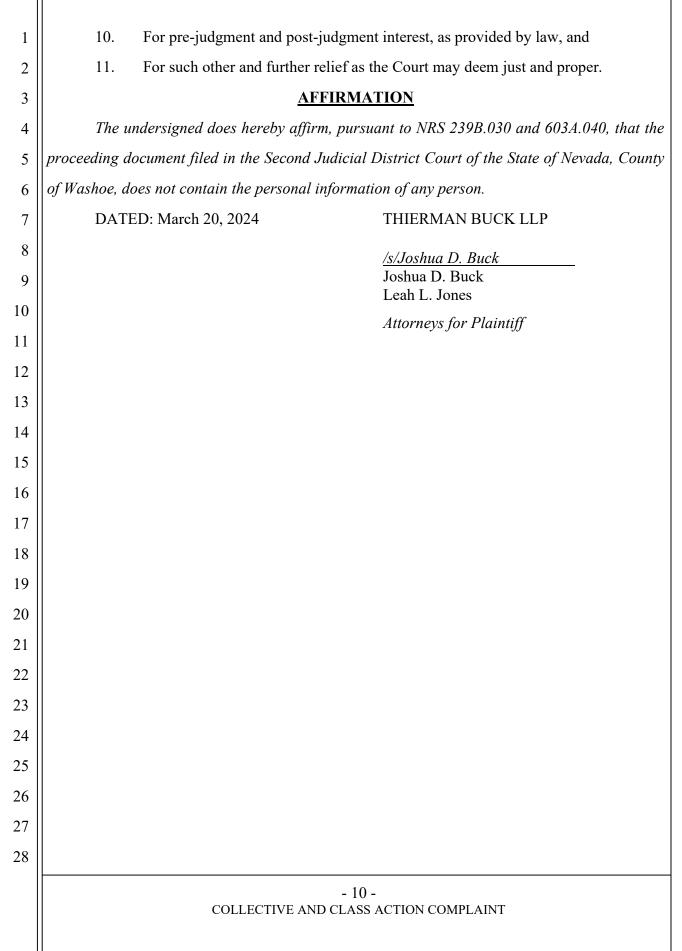

22 34. By failing to pay Plaintiff and all members of the Continuation Wage Subclass for all hours worked in violation of federal and state law, Defendant has failed to timely remit all 23 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and all members of the Continuation Wage Subclass. 24

35. Despite demand, Defendant willfully refuses and continues to refuse to pay 25 26 Plaintiff and all members of the Continuation Wage Subclass.

36. Wherefore, Plaintiff demands 30 days wages under NRS 608.140 and 608.040, 27 and an additional 30 days' wages under NRS 608.140 and 608.050, for all members of the 28
