Having reviewed all the moving papers and heard oral argument with respect to: (1) 1 application for default judgment against Defendants CUSTOMER CONNEXX, LLC and VM7 2 3 CORPORATION along with Plaintiffs' supplemental briefing on NRS 608.040-.050 waiting 4 time/continuation wage penalties, and upon review of all relevant papers and pleadings in this 5 action, the Court hereby FINDS and, CONCLUDES, and ORDERS as follows: 6 FINDINGS OF FACT 7 1. Defendants terminated Plaintiffs employment on August 19, 2023, through a "Lay 8 9 Off' Letter without paying the Plaintiff-employees all wages due and owing to them. 10 2. Plaintiffs filed their original complaint on September 14, 2023. 11 3. Plaintiffs' operable First Amended Complaint filed on December 15, 2023, 12 alleges five (5) causes of action: (1) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of the Nevada 13

Constitution and NRS 608.250; (2) failure to compensate for all hours worked in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.016; (3) failure to pay overtime in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.018; (4) failure to pay all wages due and owing in violation of NRS 608.140 and 608.020, .040, and .050; and (5) Breach of Contract for failure to timely pay all wages due and owing prior to and after their layoff from Defendants' call center in Las Vegas, Nevada.

4. Plaintiffs made a proper NRS 608.140 demand on September 8, 2023.

5. The Court granted Plaintiffs' Motion for NRCP 23 Class Certification on December 20, 2023.

6. The Class is defined as: All individuals employed by Customer Connexx who were owed wages as of August 19, 2023, and have not been paid their wages within three days of their termination pursuant to the August 19, 2023 letter.

16. NRCP 55(b)(2) requires the Court to conduct hearings for amounts in excess of $50,000.00, in order to conduct an accounting, determine the amount of damages, establish the truth of any allegations by evidence, or investigate any other matter, in order to effectuate judgment.

17. NRCP 54(c) requires that a default judgment must not differ in kind from, or exceed in amount, what is demanded in the pleadings and shall grant the relief to which each party is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in its pleadings.

18. NAC 608.115(1) provides that hours worked includes all time worked by the employee at the direction of the employer, including time worked by the employee that is outside the scheduled hours of work of the employee.

19. NRS 608.011 defines an employer as every person having control or custody of any employment, place of employment or any employee.

20. NRS 608.140 provides that an employee has a private right of action for unpaid wages and shall have cause to bring suit for wages earned and due according to the terms of his or her employment and shall establish by decision of the court or verdict of the jury that the amount for which he or she has brought suit is justly due and that a demand has been made, in writing, at least 5 days before suit was brought, for a sum not to exceed the amount so found due, the court before which the case shall be tried shall allow to the Plaintiff a reasonable attorney fee, in addition to the amount found due for wages and penalties, to be taxed as costs of suit.

21. NRS 608.016 requires that an employer shall pay to the employee wages for each hour the employee works.

22. NRS 608.020 requires that whenever an employer discharges an employee, the wages and compensation earned and unpaid at the time of such discharge shall become due and payable immediately.

23. NRS 608.040(1) provides that if an employer fails to pay: (a) Within 3 days after the wages or compensation of a discharged employee becomes due; or (b) On the day the wages or compensation is due to an employee who resigns or quits, the wages or compensation of the employee continues at the same rate from the day the employee resigned, quit or was discharged until paid or for 30 days, whichever is less.

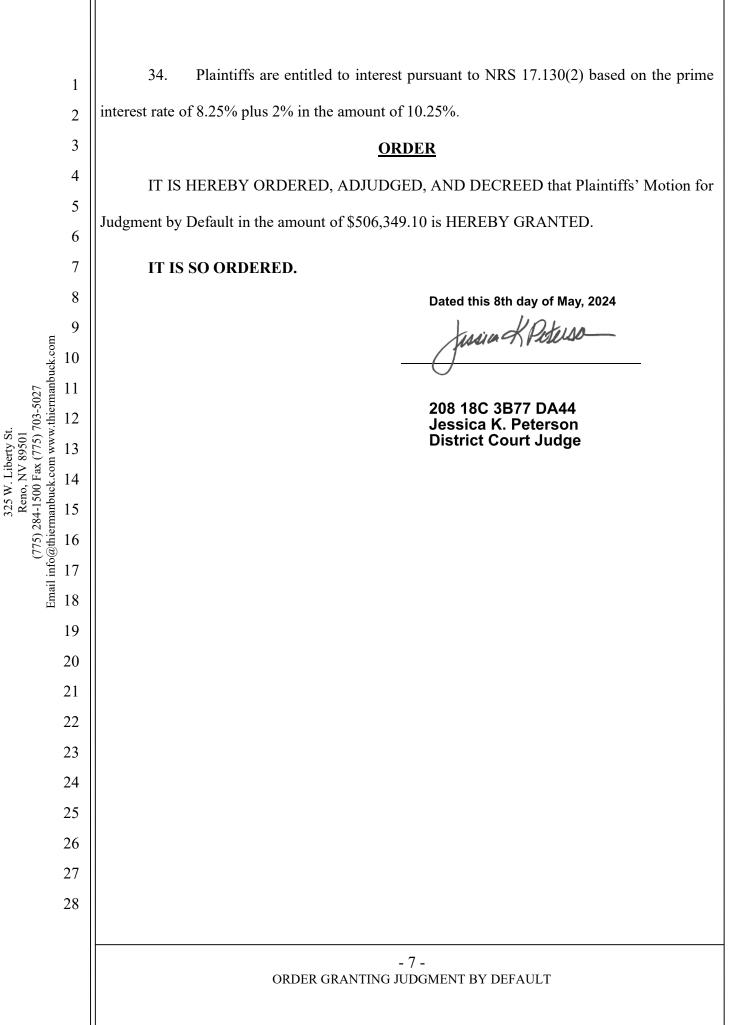

24. NRS 608.050(1) provides that whenever an employer of labor shall discharge or lay off employees without first paying them the amount of any wages or salary then due them, in cash and lawful money of the United States, or its equivalent, or shall fail, or refuse on demand, to pay them in like money, or its equivalent, the amount of any wages or salary at the time the same becomes due and owing to them under their contract of employment, whether employed by the hour, day, week or month, each of the employees may charge and collect wages in the sum agreed upon in the contract of employment for each day the employer is in default, until the employee is paid in full, without rendering any service therefor; but the employee shall cease to draw such wages or salary 30 days after such default.

21 25. NRS 17.130(1) and (2) provides that in all judgments rendered by any court of 22 justice for any debt, damages, or costs, and in all executions issued thereon, the judgment draws 23 interest from the time of service of the summons and complaint until satisfied at a rate equal to 24 the prime rate at the largest bank in Nevada as ascertained by the Commissioner of Financial 25 26 Institutions on January 1 or July 1 immediately preceding the date of judgment plus 2 percent. 27
