JOURNAL ENTRIES

Defendant's Motion to Compel Arbitration is currently set for hearing on August 15, 2024. Having read the briefing on file, and with good cause appearing the Court hereby GRANTS Defendant's Motion to Compel Arbitration based on the following.

The Court does not find grounds to find the arbitration has been waived given the parties have admittedly been participating in an attempt to settle this case, the Motion was filed some time ago with extensions granted, and the Court has not seen an extensive litigation process to date in this case.

Accordingly, given the strong policy to enforce such agreements the Court GRANTS the Motion to Compel Arbitration.

There is no pending request for class action certification but the arbitration clause speaks to this and therefore the arbitrator may rule on this question.

The Case is stayed pending the results of the arbitration.

Defendant to draft the Order.

The Hearing on August 15, 2024, is VACATED.
