JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMES NOW Plaintiff ARTHUR F. COYNE., on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated and alleges the following:

All allegations in the Complaint are based upon information and belief except for those allegations that pertain to the Plaintiff named herein and his counsel. Each allegation in the Complaint either has evidentiary support or is likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original jurisdiction over the federal claims alleged herein pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) which states: “An action to recover the liability prescribed in either of the preceding sentences may be maintained against any employer (including a public agency) in any Federal or State court of competent jurisdiction by any one or more employees for and in behalf of himself or themselves and others employees similarly situated.” Plaintiff has, or will shortly, file with this court a consent to join this action.

2. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims alleged herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because the state law claims alleged herein all arise out of the same transaction and occurrence, i.e. the failure to properly pay all wages due and there is no conflict between the procedures applicable to the FLSA and State law claims. Integrity Staffing Solutions, Inc., 2013 U.S. App. LEXIS 7397 (9th Cir. Nev. Apr. 12, 2013) (“In sum, we agree with the other circuits to consider the issue that the fact that Rule 23 class actions use an opt-

1 out mechanism while FLSA collective actions use an Opt-in mechanism does not create a 2 conflict warranting dismissal of the state law claims.”)

3 3. Under Nevada State law, an employee and/or former employee has a private 4 cause of action for minimum wages for all hours worked pursuant to Section 16 of Article 15 of 5 the Nevada State Constitution. Article 15, Section 16(B) of the Constitution of the State of 6 Nevada states in relevant part: “An employee claiming violation of this section may bring an 7 action against his or her employer in the courts of this State to enforce the provisions of this 8 section and shall be entitled to all remedies available under the law or in equity appropriate to 9 remedy any violation of this section, including but not limited to back pay, damages, 10 reinstatement or injunctive relief. An employee who prevails in any action to enforce this 11 section shall be awarded his or her reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”

12 4. In addition, this Court has jurisdiction over the Nevada statutory claims alleged 13 herein because the parties seeking to recover unpaid wages have a private right of action 14 pursuant to the Nevada Constitution, Nevada Revised Statute (“NRS”) sections 608.050 and 15 608.140, among others. Baldonado v. Wynn Las Vegas, LLC, 124 Nev. 951 (Nev. 2008);

17 11, 2012) (recognizing that the Nevada Supreme Court stated “it is “illogical” that a plaintiff 18 who can privately enforce a claim for attorneys’ fees under NRS § 608.140 cannot privately 19 enforce the underlying claim the fees arose from”) (citing Csomos v. Venetian Casino Resort,

24 grounds, No. 13-433, 2014 WL 6885951 (U.S. Dec. 9, 2014); Evans v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.,

1 employees have a private cause of action to sue their employer (as well as third party property

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

2 10. Station is a gaming, development and management company that owns and 3 operates nine major hotel/casino properties and ten smaller casino properties in the Las Vegas 4 regional market. The hotel/casino properties which are owned and operated by Station include 5 the following: Red Rock Casino, Resort & Spa; Green Valley Ranch Resort, Spa & Casino; 6 Palace Station; Sunset Station; Boulder Station; Santa Fe Station; Texas Station; Fiesta Rancho; 7 Fiesta Henderson; Barley's Casino & Brewing; The Greens Gaming & Dining; Wildfire 8 Boulder; Wildfire Rancho; Wildfire Casino & Lanes; Wildfire Sunset; Wildfire Anthem; 9 Wildfire Valley View; Wildfire Lake Mead; and Wild Wild West. Plaintiff was formerly 10 employed by Defendants as a table games dealer at one of their Las Vegas casino locations.

11 11. Red Rock was formed as a Delaware corporation in September 2015 to manage 12 and own an indirect equity interest in Station Casinos LLC. Presently, Red Rock holds 100% of 13 the voting interest in Station. Red Rock also controls and operates all of the business and affairs 14 of Station. At all times relevant herein, Red Rock has acted directly and indirectly in the 15 interest of Defendant Station in relation to Plaintiff and all others similarly situated and qualifies 16 as a joint employer with Defendant Station and is therefore subject to individual liability under 17 §203(d) of the Fair Labor Standards Act and 29 C.F.R. §791.2. Red Rock has exercised 18 significant control over the nature and structure of the employment relationship for Plaintiff and 19 all others similarly situated and has also exercised significant economic control over Station and 20 the relationship of Plaintiff and all other similarly situated with Station. Further, Red Rock has 21 approved and ratified all the illegal acts alleged herein.

22 12. At all times relevant herein, Defendants have employed a number of hourly paid 23 employees at each of their casino/hotel properties, including Plaintiff and all others similarly 24 situated.

25 13. At all times relevant herein, Defendants have engaged in an illegal, willful and 26 malicious policy and practice of failing to compensate their hourly employees, including 27 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, working for Defendants at their casino/hotels located 28 in the State of Nevada for all hours worked. This policy and practice was effectuated by 1 requiring employees to attend a mandatory pre-shift meeting off the clock and without 2 compensation.

3 14. At the time of his separation of employment from Defendants, Plaintiff was 4 making $7.65 per hour. Plaintiff was scheduled for, eight hour shifts, five days per week, and 5 regularly worked, at least a 40-hour workweek.

6 DEFENDANTS' PRE-SHIFT WORK REQUIREMENTS

7 15. Defendants required all employees who worked as dealers to attend a pre-shift 8 meeting without compensation. These pre-shift meetings are one of the ways that Station 9 communicates to its employees, as stated in the Station Employee Handbook attached to 10 Plaintiff's original complaint as Exhibit B, hereinafter "Handbook" at p. 5, "Pre-shift Meetings 11 (Huddles)." (ECF No. 1 at p. 44.) The pre-shift meetings were held in order to have employees 12 check in with the shift manager and/or supervisor, who would instruct employees on job duties, 13 special events in the area, and at all Station Casino properties, occupancy, and other job related 14 information. Pre-shift meetings could take 10 minutes or more and were held off the clock, i.e., 15 before employees logged in for work using Defendants' automated time keeping system.
16 Despite the fact that Plaintiff and all others similarly situated were performing compensable 17 work during this period, they were not paid for said work by Defendants.

18 16. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated employees were routinely denied 19 approximately 10 minutes of uncompensated time at least three shifts per week and as many as 20 four shifts per week, each and every week worked. Since Plaintiff and all others similarly 21 situated employees were routinely scheduled for, and indeed worked, at least 40 hours per 22 workweek, the amount of time that was not paid due to Defendants' off-the-clock pre-shift 23 policy, should have been paid at the overtime rate of pay of 1.5 times employees' regular hourly 24 rate. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated employees were thus deprived of thirty (30) to 25 forty (40) minutes of uncompensated time per workweek worked, each and every week worked.

26 17. For example, Plaintiff was scheduled for and worked 40 hours (not including the 27 pre-shift activities) for the last full workweek of his employment, from on or about June 14 to 28 on or about June 21, 2015. Plaintiff performed the pre-shift activities identified above on four 1 occasions during this workweek but was not compensated his regular or overtime rate for the 2 performance of those activities. As a result, Plaintiff is owed 40-minutes of uncompensated 3 overtime pay, or $7.65, for the performance of those uncompensated work activities.

4 18. At all times relevant herein, Defendants have maintained a strict attendance 5 policy applicable to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated hourly employees employed by 6 Defendants. Pursuant to Defendants' attendance policy, Plaintiff and all others similarly 7 situated were required to be present at their respective work station(s) and "ready to work" by 8 their scheduled shift start time. Otherwise, Plaintiff and all others similarly situated were 9 deemed to be tardy and in violation of Defendants' strict attendance policy. Violations of 10 Defendants' attendance policy, i.e., being tardy, could result in Plaintiff and all others similarly 11 situated being verbally counseled, written up, and ultimately terminated.

12 19. At all times relevant herein, Defendants had an agreement with Plaintiff and all 13 others similarly situated to pay an agreed upon hourly wage rate of pay for all hours they 14 worked for Defendants. Indeed, Defendants offered to pay Plaintiff and others similarly 15 situated a specific rate of pay in exchange for their promise to perform work for Defendants.
16 Plaintiff accepted Defendants' offer, showed up for his scheduled shifts, and completed work on 17 behalf of Defendants in exchange for the agreed upon hourly wage. However, Defendants did 18 not pay Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees for all hours they actually worked on 19 Defendants' behalf.

20 20. The parties' employment agreement necessarily incorporated all applicable 21 provisions of both state and federal law, including the labor laws of the State of Nevada.

22 21. Terms of Plaintiff's employment contained in Defendants' Handbook given to 23 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated specifically states:

24 A. Employment Status - All Team Members who are designated as 25 non-exempt are entitled to be paid at least the minimum wage per hour and 26 premium for overtime.

27 B. Overtime Pay Procedures - To meet business schedules and 28 needs, it may be necessary to require Team Members to work overtime. All

1 overtime work must be approved by your Supervisor in advance. Any Team 2 Member who works unauthorized overtime will be properly compensated for this 3 time but may be subject to coaching or progressive discipline for failing to 4 comply with this policy. All overtime is paid consistently with legal requirements.

5 C. Team Member Work Hours/Work Schedules – The Company
6 relies on its Team Members to be present and prompt when reporting for work. ...
7 It is essential that you adhere to the posted schedule and report to your 8 workstation at your scheduled time. ... Changes to a team Member’s schedule can 9 only be made with Management approval.

10 D. Recording Work Hours – The Company’s policy requires that all 11 Team Members designated as non-exempt accurately record their hours worked 12 each day and inform Management of any difficulties or problems in doing so. All 13 non-exempt Team Members are responsible for clocking in at the commencement 14 of work and clocking out at the conclusion of work. Additionally, non-exempt 15 Team Members are expected to record any meal breaks. Timekeeping procedures 16 will be explained to new Team Members prior to beginning his or her first 17 shift....

18 The Company prohibits all non-exempt Team Members from performing any 19 work without recording their time for payroll purposes (i.e., “working off the 20 clock.”) Team Members will not be directed to work off the clock.

21 22. At all times relevant herein, Defendants have been aware that their policy and 22 practice of failing to fully compensate Plaintiff and all others similarly situated for all hours 23 worked was illegal. Further, Defendants’ practice as set forth herein are anti-competitive in 24 that these illegal practices make one of Defendants’ largest cost items, labor, lower than as 25 compared to other casino owners/operators who comply with the labor laws.

26 COLLECTIVE AND CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27 23. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all the paragraphs above in the 28 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

1 24. Plaintiff brings the action on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated 2 hourly paid employees employed by Defendants in Nevada as both a collective action under the 3 FLSA and a true class action under Nevada law.

4 25. The FLSA CLASS consists of all hourly paid dealers employed by Defendants, 5 in the United States within three years immediately preceding the filing of this action until the 6 date of judgement after trial.

7 26. With regard to the conditional certification mechanism under the FLSA, Plaintiff 8 is similarly situated to those that he seeks to represent for the following reasons, among others:

9 A. Plaintiff seeks preliminary and final certification and requests an 10 order from this court that notice of this action be sent to all prospective FLSA 11 CLASS Members so that they may become party plaintiffs in this litigation 12 pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) if they so desire.

13 B. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a dealer who did not receive 14 compensated for attending mandatory pre-shift meetings.

15 C. Plaintiff's situation is similar to those he seeks to represent because 16 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and all other FLSA CLASS Members for the 17 time spent attending mandatory pre-shift meetings.

18 D. Upon information and belief, Defendants employ, and has 19 employed, in excess of 300 FLSA CLASS Members within the applicable statute 20 of limitations.

21 E. Plaintiff has signed a Consent to Join form, which was attached to 22 the original Complaint as Exhibit C.

23 27. The NEVADA CLASS consists of all hourly paid employees employed by 24 Defendants, in the State of Nevada within six years immediately preceding the filing of this 25 action until the date of judgement after trial. The NEVADA CLASS is further divided into the 26 following sub-class:

27 A. WAGES DUE AND OWING SUB-CLASS: All members of the 28 NEVADA CLASS who are former employees.

1 28. Rule 23 treatment is appropriate for the Nevada Class and each subclass 2 specified herein for the following reasons:

3 A. The NEVADA CLASS and each SUB-CLASS is Sufficiently 4 Numerous. Upon information and belief, Defendants employ, and has employed, 5 in excess of 300 NEVADA CLASS Members and at least several hundred within 6 each sub-class within the applicable statute of limitations. Because Defendants are 7 legally obligated to keep accurate payroll records, Plaintiff alleges that 8 Defendants' records will establish the identity and ascertainably of members of 9 the NEVADA Class and each SUB-CLASS as well as their numerosity.

10 B. Plaintiff's Claims are Typical to Those of Fellow Class and Sub-11 Class Members. Each NEVADA CLASS and each Sub-Class Member is and was 12 subject to the same practices, plans, and/or policies as Plaintiff, as follows: (1) 13 Defendants failed to pay new hire employees the Nevada Constitutional minimum 14 wage because of a company-wide policy to pay all new hires less than $8.25 an 15 hour and a company-wide policy of not offering medical insurance to employees 16 until after 90 days of continuous employment; (2) Defendants required Plaintiff 17 and all NEVADA CLASS Members to engage in pre-shift activities without 18 compensation because of a companywide policy of requiring, suffering or 19 permitting employees to perform work off the clock; and (3) as a result of 20 working employees off the clock, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and WAGES 21 DUE AND OWING SUB-CLASS Members all wages due and owing at the time 22 of their termination or separation from employment.

23 C. Common Questions of Law and Fact Exist. Common questions of 24 law and fact exist and predominate as to Plaintiff and the Nevada class, including 25 all sub-classes, including, without limitation the following: (1) Whether Plaintiff 26 and NEVADA Class Members must be compensated for the mandatory pre-shift 27 meeting; and (2) Whether Defendants delayed final payment to Plaintiffs and WAGES DUE AND OWING SUB-CLASS Members in violation of NRS 608.020-050.

D. Plaintiff Is an Adequate Representative of the Class and each SUB-CLASS. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the NEVADA CLASS and each SUB-CLASS because Plaintiff is a member of the class and each SUB-CLASS, he has issues of law and fact in common with all members of the class and each SUB-CLASS, and he does not have any interests antagonistic to the members of the class or any SUB-CLASS. Plaintiff and counsel are aware of their fiduciary responsibilities to Members of the class and each SUB-CLASS and are determined to discharge those duties diligently and vigorously by seeking the maximum possible recovery for the class and sub-class as a group.

E. Superiority/Predominance. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of their controversy and common questions predominate over individualized issues. Each Member of the class and each SUB-CLASS has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants’ illegal policy and/or practice of failing to compensate its employees in accordance with federal and Nevada wage and hour law. The prosecution of individual remedies by each member of the class and each SUB-CLASS will be cost prohibitive and may lead to inconsistent standards of conduct for Defendants and result in the impairment of the rights and the disposition of their interest through actions to which they were not parties.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Pay Wages in Violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and all members of the FLSA CLASS)

29. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all the paragraphs above in the Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

1 engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, or is employed in an 2 enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, for a workweek 3 longer than forty hours unless such employee receives compensation for his employment in 4 excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular 5 rate at which he is employed.”

6 37. By failing to compensate Plaintiff and FLSA CLASS Members for the time 7 spent attending the mandatory pre-shift meetings identified above, Defendants failed to pay 8 Plaintiff and the FLSA CLASS Members for all hours worked.

9 38. Wherefore, Plaintiff demands for himself and for all others similarly situated, 10 that Defendants pay Plaintiff and FLSA CLASS Members one and one half times their regular 11 hourly rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours a week during the relevant 12 time period together with liquidated damages, attorneys’ fees, costs, and interest as provided by 13 law.

14 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

15 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of the Nevada Constitution

16 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and all members of the NEVADA CLASS)

17 39. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all the paragraphs above in the 18 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

19 40. Article 15, Section 16(A) of the Constitution of the State of Nevada sets forth 20 the minimum wage requirements in the State of Nevada and further provides that “[t]he 21 provisions of this section may not be waived y agreement between an individual employee and 22 an employer. ... An employee claiming violation of this section may bring an action against his 23 or her employer in the courts of this State to enforce the provisions of this section and shall be 24 entitled to all remedies available under the law or in equity appropriate to remedy any violation 25 of this section, including but not limited to back pay, damages, reinstatement or injunctive 26 relief. An employee who prevails in any action to enforce this section shall be awarded his or 27 her reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”
28

1 41. By failing to compensate Plaintiff and NEVADA CLASS Members any sort of 2 compensation (zero dollars) for the time spent engaging in pre-shift meeting identified above, 3 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and NEVADA CLASS Members for all hours worked in 4 violation of the Nevada Constitution. Indeed, zero dollars is less than the Nevada minimum 5 wage of $7.25 per hour worked.

6 42. There is a two-year statute of limitations for Nev. Const. art. 15 § 16.

7 43. Wherefore, Plaintiff demands for himself and for NEVADA CLASS Members 8 payment by Defendants at their regular hourly rate of pay or the minimum wage rate, whichever 9 is higher, for all hours worked for the two years immediately preceding the filing of this 10 complaint until the date of judgement after trial, together with attorneys’ fees, costs, and interest
